VOL. 4.

3:10 -

it

JACKSON, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1901.

[Copyrighted sons by the J. B. Lippincott Company.]

times cheers and offtimes inchriates, and no public occasion was complete without champagne and whisky is abundance, no personal or private transaction considered auspicious unless appropriately wet.

Those were days when our mixtesmen received in sentiment and comp. EYNOPSIS. reveled in sentiment and song and drank and gambled with the fervor of the fol-lowers of the races. I was a boy of ten-der years then, and often, with my play-

CHAPTER II.—Stuyvesant discovers she is Marion Ray, daughter of Coi. Ray. He has an encounter with a drunken recruit, Murray, who swears revenue. Early next morning the old recruit car is discovered on fire, caused by heating of journal boxes, and the spliters barely secape with their lives. Sinyvesant help, result Murray, but it severely burned, Miss Ray helps tend the injured, including Stuyvesant. Forter, although injured, declares he is in meed of no aid.

CHAPTER III.—Miss. Day leaves train

meed of no aid.

CHAPTER III.—Miss Ray leaves train at Sacramento. On arrival at Oakland Biuyvesant receives telegram saying lieutenant's commission awaits Foster at San Francisco. In looking him up it is discovered that he has disappeared.

CHAPTER IV.—Stuyvesant, attached to Gen. Vinten's staff, is questioned by one Gen. Drayton as to knowledge of Foster's whereabouts. Drayton shows him letter from oid friend, Foster's uncle, telling of Foster's meeting with Miss Ray some time previous in Kactucky and his infatuation for her. Stuyvesant suggests looking for bim in Sacramento.

CHAPTER V.-Murray, the unruly re-bruit, is discovered to be a deserver. Stuy-resent accidentally meets Lieut. Ray, brether of Miss Ray, at Sen Francisco. They accidentally speak of Foster, whem Ray knows, and he says his sister's deter-mination not to marry outside the army must have caused Paster to entist and ch-deavor to win the strape.

must have caused Paster to enist and endeavor to win the strage.

CHAPTER VI.—Mess Ray, with her mother, comes to San Francisco, but Stuyresant, although vew anxious, has not the pleasure of meeting her. Lieur, Ray, while visiting them one evening, reserves word that prisoners under his charge have escaped and his quarters have been robbed.
When transport on which Stuy-weard sails is leaving harbor he, with party of offiners, boards are escort steamer to bid friends farewell. Muss Ray is aboard and he is introduced. They speak, and he expresses hops of meeting her upon his return from Manila. She smilingly answers:
"I think you may see me—before that."

CHAPTER VII.—it is learned Murray is one of escaped prisoners and that $1,00 is among Leet. Ray's missing property.

CHAPTER VII.—At Honolule three-poiwhen, ten minutes later, he reap-peared. "Norris is with him," he said in low tone, as he looked down into the sweet, serious, upturned face, "He shoulin't have tried it. He fooled the doctors completely. I'll that so many were temperate in our mest and drink, as my father and grand-atther that so many were temperate in our mest and drink, as my father and grand-atther that so many were temperated by Saturday, September 6, 1801, at 6 o clock p. m. The over intently and then reverently kissed. Later, and for the second time, he unfolded and read the longest latter his father had ever penned. It was as follows:

slon of scattment.

"Quarter of a century ago even among before. I mourn every hour I wested over cards and every dollar I ever won from a omrade more than-much more than-the many hundred delians I less in my several years' superative slip to poker. It's just about the poorest investment of time a zeleter can devise.

"Knowing all I do, and looking back over the path of my life, stream as it is with the wreeks of follow-men ruined by whisky, I declare if I could live it over again it would be with the determination never to touch a card for money or a glass for limor.

"I have slipped away from camp and its countless interruptions and taken a room, at the hotel to night, dear Sandy, for I want to have a long talk with my boyan talk we ought to have had before, and it is my fault that we clidn't I shrank from it semehow, and now am sorry for it. "Your frank and manful letter telling me of your severe loss and of the weak-nees that fellowed, reached me two days ago. Your mother's some yesterday, fonder than ever and pleading for you as only mothers can. It is a matter that has cost us all dear financially, but thanks to that loving mother, you were promptly mabled to sover the less and save your name. You know and restige the sacrifices she had to make, and sits tells me that you insisted on knowing. I am glad you did, my boy. I am going to leave in your hamis than all the others in the world, and fuce soldiers as Grant, Crook, Merritte and Upon, of our service, and Kitchener of Khartoum, are un record as saying that the staying powers of the temperate man, and stayi "A young fellow of 20 cm; start in the army with many a worse handleap than a febt of honor and a determination to work it off. That steadles him. That matter really gives me less care than you thought.

for. It is the other-your giving way to an impulse to drink—that fills me with concern. You come up like a man, admit your fault, and say you deserve and expect my severe censure. Well, I've thought it all over, Sandy. My heart and my arms go out to you in your distress and humiliation, and—I have not one word of repreach or blame to give you. "For new I shall tell you what I had thought to say when your graduation freweigh. Bad we here able to master inechanics and molecules and other mathematical rot not as useful to a cavairy officer as a binocular to a blind man, and that I ought to have told you when you startought to have told you when you started out for yourself as a young ranchero, but could not bring myself to it so long but could not bring myself to it so long as you seemed to here no inclination that way. Times men and customs have greatly changed in the last 40 or 50 years, my boy, and greatly for the better. Looking back over my boyhood, I can recall no day when wife was not served on your grandfarther's table. The brightest minds and bravest men in all Kentucky pledged each ather day and night in the cup that some:

could not deny her, both your mother and I are filled with anxiety as to the result. To you we look to be her shield in every possible way. We have never cassed to thank God for the pride and Joy He has given us in our children. (You yourself would delight in seeing what a tip-top little soldier Will is making.) You have ever been manful, truthful, and, I say it with pride and thankfulness unutterable, square as boy could be. You have our whole faith and trust and love unspeakable. You have the best and fondest mother in the world, my son. And now I have not one more word to urge or advise. Think and decide for yourself. Your manhood under God will do the rest.

"In love and confidence," "PATHER."

When Marion came tapping timidly

HAS KINGUSY

mates. I was called from our merry games to join the gentlemen over their wine and

When Marion came tapping timidly at the stateroom door there was for a moment no answer. Sandy's face was buried in his hands as he knelt beside the little white berth. He presently arose, dashed some water over his eyes and brows, then shot back the bolt and took his sister in his arms.

(To be continued.)

How General Grant Lost His "Hiram."

Not many Americans know as We Not Know Them," The therein, -Union Ledger. story of how it came about was told by a member of congress-HE READ THE LONGEST LETTER HIS Thomas L. Hamer-who recommended young Grant as a candito join the gentlemen over their wine and drain a bumper to our glorious 'Harry of the West,' and before I were to the Point. Sandy, I knew the best, and possibly the worst, whiskys made in Kentucky—we all did—and the man or youth who could not stand his glars of liquor was looked upon as a milksop, or pitted, and yet, after all, respected, as a 'singed cat'—a fellow who owned that John Barleycorn was too much for him, and he did not dare a single round with him.

"Then came the great war, and wars are always in one way demoralizing. West date for West Point in 1839. Mr. the Grants, but when he came to between Altheims and Little make out the application papers Rock. To all points in Texas Virginia, Pennsylvania and other ute wealth and education. These millions of dollars as payment for Think you may see me-before that.

CHAPTER VII.—it is learned Murray in one of escaped prisoners and that it. Start is searned Murray in one of escaped prisoners and that it. Start is searned Murray in one of escaped prisoners and that it. Start is searned Murray in one way demoralizing. West is among Lieut. Ray's missing property.

CHAPTER VII.—At Hoselula three odding the west found to carry still had its takes and traditions of the West Folks of to-day, and no worse than a dozon of our greatest colleges. The draw is shall, when overgied yn made a dash for the decenters and drank everything in secretly attempting to leave for ship bound for Australia. A scome casues in which Surveesant inserts and drank everything in the invariable custom for the superflow with Lifett. Each by many weeks. Unasily transpert Secrements arise and to invite the effects and the greatwar, and to set forth.

Then came the great war, and wars are always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always are for his mother's family, he wrote always in one way demoralizing. West for his mother's family, he wrote always are for his mother's family, he wrote the was doubled at West O'Charles and the for his mother's family, he wrote for his mother's family, he wrote for his mother's f for his mother's family, he wrote adopted, and by it Grant was, ing class to meet them, and to set forth, adopted, and by it draft was, as for years had been the fashion at Wash, and always will be, known. But would laughingly invite and challenge the voungaters so soon to shed the gray and wear the blue to drink with them again and again. I have seen dozens of the best and bravest of our fellows come reeling and shouling back to barracks and a thoughtless set of boys laughing and appropriately.

Sealed bids wi

Proposals for Fire-Wood.

Sealed bids will be received by the plauding. Senied bids will be received by the "I was stationed at the Point seen after undersigned for the sale and delivery

Notice to Contractors.

"Quarter of a century ugo even among many gently nurtured women the sight of a main overheame by liquer excited only forrow and sympathy; now it commands nothing less than abhorence. I and my surviving contemporaries started in life under the old system. You my dear boy, are more fortunate in having begun with the new. Among the old soldiers there are still zome few votaries of Bacchus who have to rount their cups most carefully or risk their commissions. Among those under 40 our army has for more total abstanters than all the others in the world, and guck soldiers as Grant, Crook, Merrite The street committee of the city of Jackson, Mo., will receive scaled bids up to 3 o'clock Saturday, August 31, 1901, for bringing South High 31, 1901, for bringing South High Street from First South Street to Fourth South Street to the estab-lished grade. Specifications are on file with city clerk, where bids are to be deposited. The right any and all bids is reserved. The right to reject FRED E. KIRS, Chairman.

Notices to Bridge Painters and the staying powers of the temperate man, and staying power is a thing to cultivate.

"As you know, I have never banished wine from our table, my boy. Both your mother and I had been accustomed to seem that I may be the rarely touches it, even at our dinners. But, a santord, I sent John Barleycorn to the right about the day your bessed mother promised to be my wife, and though I also ways kept it in the sigeboard for old compared whose heads and stomachs are still sound, and who find it agrees with them sound, and who find it agrees with them. Contractors, rades whose heads and stomachs are still sound, and who find it agrees with them better than wine. I never offer it to the youngsters. They don't need it, Sandy, and no more do you.

"But you come of a race that fived as dig their fellow men—to whom cardes the bottle and betting were everyday afform. It would be ramarkable if you never developed a tendency towards one or all of there, and it was my duty to warn you before. I mourn every hour I wasted over building of a wooden bridge on stone pillars across a branch on land of N. P. Stearn's, a half mile north of Millerville. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

B. A. DAUGHERTY, Road and Bridge Commissioner. The undersigned Road and Bridge County, Missouri, will, on September 28, at 2 p. m., at site of old bridge, let contract for the building of a new would be with the determination-never to touch a card for money or a glass for liquor.

"And now, my own boy, let me bear the blame of this—your first transgression, on road from Whitewater to Allen-You are more to us than we have ever told you. You are now your saler's guardien, bidde is received.

B. A. DAVOHERTY. Road and Bridge Commissione

Southeast Missouri News.

The Bloomfield Courier is now an all-home. 6 column folio.

The Cash' Book has dropped the patent, and hereafter it will paper.

The Illinois Central, one of the best and most business railroads in the country, is going to put in two tracks at Cape Girardeau.

M. E. Leming, of Cape Girardeau, is spoken of as a candidate for representative af this county. A better man could not be put up.

reaped the reware of his folly.

that Hiram U. Grant was the by which strangers judge the of the mass of the democratic necessary to refer to the fraternal few days ago. eighteenth president of the size of a town and the ability of party needs to meet to arouse the institutions of the United States Now, multiplying words will United States. Yet it is true, its business men, hence the paper people to a sense of the impend- and Great Britian, note the do no good, and our Sunday. for "Ulysses Simpson" was never that does not have the advertise ing doom to the party. The numbers, both as to societies and school lesson last Sunday taught legally the name of our greatest ment of every business in town is great mass of the party will not numbers, and it will be readily us "That there are times when general. This interesting fact is forced to misrepresent it. The stand a condemnation of William observed that the fraternal it is better to surrender one's brought out by Franklin B. Wiley paper is a mirror that should re- J. Bryan, directly or indirectly, institutions greatly exceed those rights than to fight for them," in the Ladies' Home Journal for flect a true picture of the town in any future platform." September, in "Famous People and every business conducted Ex-Gov. Stephens quotes his high degree of civilization. There ing the Volksfreund, that while

Home-seekers' Excursion Rates. The Cotton Belt advise additransit limit to be 15 days, which firston, wine and punch is abundance and the expressions of many other the very officers detailed as our instructors as for any record of the birth of in home seekers' territory. Reveteran democrats, as given by necessary to continue it. This is and his allowed when the landian time stop overs will be permitted

> For further information call upon or address W. E. Gipson, Deray, Mo., or when the precision of the should be bottom sompletely. The collection of declared sociolators completely. The collection of the sociolators controlled the sociolators co scribers), the News of the Week in complete form, and other special features. Specimen copies gladly sent on application, and if you will send us a fist on addresses, we will mail a copy to each. Only $1 a year. If you wish to raise a club, write for terms. Address THE BLADE. Toledo, Ohio'

E.W. LABAUME, G. P & T. A. St. Louis, Mo.

THE TOLEDO WEEKLY BLADE.

> CONSUMPTION THREATENED. hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians several months. I used one bottle of me and I have not been troubled since." All dealers.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes kidneys and pladder right.

A PURE EMAPE CREAM OF TARTAR POWDEN.

Highest Honors, World's Pair Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair Avoid Baking Powders containing alum. They are injurious to beilth

Missourians' Plain Talk.

Hon. Lon V. Stephens, in his of the Boonville Advertiser, without sin cast the first stone," Kansas City platforms to stultify drive her over by snubbing her, ourselves by now repudiating but take her hand in kindness democratic stalwart. "It is no you will feel better for having use," he says, "to disgnise the made the attempt.-Ex. Henry Austin, colored, shot fact that whenever the demoand killed Bob Blount last week at cratic party puts forth a platform It has been observed, says the have given our opinion of the Bloomfield. Blount was in against bimetallism as a financial official organ of a leading frater. matter, and have nothing to re-Austin's house and made undue policy it might just as well throw nal organization, that higher tract. Bro. Kies is a good, advances to Austin's wife. He up the sponge." Then he adds civilization and fraternal societies clever fellow, and we are sorry we significantly: "It is more ob- bear close relation to each other. took a job away from him, but we The local paper is the one thing vious than ever that a convention In evidence of this it is only learn that he evened are on us a vention idea for 1901 was his own citizenship. this state

we will of the national democracy in the coming canvasses. This is the position which Col. Stephens and the rest of the democratic thoroughbreds take. These west C.Unger, 212 Maplest, Champaign, ern democrats say that the men Ill, writes:"I was troubled with a who have been fighting the battles of the democracy, and not the men who have been casting republican ballots, should frame the platforms and put up the Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured candidates of the democratic party. If the United States is, going to retain political partiesand republican government can not be maintained without them -there will have to be courage, consistency and continuity in their direction and policy, as ex-Gov. Stephens points out matter.—Unicago Record Herald. There will be a halcyon and vociferous time in the Missouri Geo. W. LanePewamo, Mich writes state convention of 1902 when the "YourKodol Dyspepsia Cure is the handful of reorganizer bosses best remedy for indigestion and undertake to turn down the stomach trouble that I ever used. For years I suffered from dyspep democratic stalwarts and to put sia, at times compelling me to stay the democratic party over on te- in bed and causing me untold agpublican ground.—St. Louis onv. I am completely cured by Globe Democrat. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recom-Globe Democrat.

"I took medicine 20 years for have never paid." All dealers. asthma but one bottle of One Minute Cough Care did me more good than anything else during that Foley's Honey and Tar time, Best cough cure. All thealers. for children, safe, sure. No opiates. Hinkle-Williams Merc. &

More women are annually driven to the dogs by the venom of other women's tongues-who, forget-"Sharps and Flats" department ting the words, "Let him who is makes some interesting extracts seem to take special delight in knew about his publishing road be an all-home, 6 column folio from a letter written by Hon. talking about the frailties of and bridge notices. Thomas Shackleford, Glasgow's their less perfect sisters--than veteran lawyer and party worker. some of the professed christians publish the road and bridge 'Are those of us who stood have any idea of. If you think a notices at 2 cents per line less squarely on the Chicago and girl is on the brink of ruin, don't (whatever that means) than he what we then believed to be and try to hold her back. It will a contract, and we cannot see yet right?" indignantly asks this often succeed, and if it doesn't but that it is a needless expense.

in countries not claiming such a therefore, we will ring off, assurlanguage approvingly, adds on can be no doubt but that the we owe it nothing but good will. his own account that the "great- leveling up of conditions of so wish it success, and hold no est mistake the democratic party large a proportion of our people | malice against it, yet it may ever tional home-seekers' excursions ever made in Missouri was when, as enter our societies, not only expect us to represent our from Delta, Mo. to all points in ninety days ago, a convention or impresses those directly con- interests without fear or favor. Arkansas, except Little Rock and conference, as suggested by Mr. cerned, but reflects more or less points on the Little Rock branch. Shackleford, was not held. Sub- by example to the advantage of ington show that we have paid to and Louisiana on the Cotton Belt, states, even in Missouri, demon- are followed by intelligence and lands of which they made no use Kansas City Southern, Texas & states, even in Missouri, demon- are followed by intelligence and Pacific (except New Orleans) and strate the correctness of this morals. Again they eliminate the H. & S. railroad, and to all position. The responsible par- caste, teach good matners, im vancement of enterprise, the points in Oklahoma and Indian ties are known, and will not press lessons of independence and escape punishment." Many of quality of right. In many ways building of homes, says the Misthe ex governor's democratic ene- their effect has been to lift the mies said the Pertle Springs con- members to bigher planes of that as they have advertised in distributed pro rata among the words here quoted, however, and the past, and are well known in Indians, 75 per cent of it having the expressions of many other the community, it is entirely un- gone into the pockets of men "Ulysses Simpson Grant," that turn limit, 21 days from date of Mr. Stephens in previous issues a grevious mistake. They forget and his alleged wrongs as a priof the Boonville Advertiser, that this is a growing country vate speculation for themselves. show that even if the Pertle and each week brings new custo The people of this country have Springs idea originated with the mers in the country who never been compelled to pay a few deex-governor, it has found favor heard of them. It is unquestionably signing rascals millions in money with many democratic leaders in a fact that the continuous adver- for the lands to which they are tiser is the one who gets the entitled by occupancy and the benefit from advertising. What cultivation of the soil. The

When the chief inspector of the postoffice department admits that complaints have been received during the year concerning 52,306 letters, of which 41,-056 held inclosures, and also was incurable. One bottle relieved concerning 47,949 packages, the me, the second and third almost tigures are large enough to make the reader feel that there are risks in the mails, though he himself has never suffered a loss. But figures that apper absolutely large often dwindle and shrivel when they are subjected to a comparison, and that is true in this instance. For the government which received the complaints handles every year some 8,000,000,000 pieces of postal mending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to Henry Braydon, Harris, N.C., says: pay for it if it fails. Thus far I

We Ring Off.

NO. 43.

We are thankfull to Bro. Kies for publishing in English in the Volksfreund last week all be

He has a contract he tells us to charges for locals. We also must publish these notices under However, if the people and the court are satisfied with this arrangement we can stand it. We LATE figures compiled at Wash and which we needed for the adgrowth of commerce and the souri State Republican. This great sum of money would have been wasted, even if all of it, or Some merchants have an idea the greater part of it, had been more good than any public ones. September Ladies' Home Journal.

NorrisSilver, NorthStratford, N. H : "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffer ing with a cough doctors told me cured. To day I am a well man. All dealers.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures colds, prevents pneumonia.

BUY THE SEWING MACHINE

Do not be deceived by those who advertise a $60.00 Sewing Machine for $20.00. This kind of a machine can be longht from us or any of our dealers from $15.00 to $18.00. WE MAKE A VARIETY. THE NEW HOME IS THE BEST. The Feed determines the strength or weakness of Sewing Machines. The Double Feed combined with other strong points makes the New Home the best Sewing Machine to buy. Write for CIRCULARS showing the dif-ferent styles of seeing Minchines we manufacture and prices before purch, sing

THE NEW ROME SEWING MACHINE CO.

28 Union Sq. N. Y., Chicago, Ili., Atlanta, Ga 8t, Louis, Mo., Dallas, Tex., San Francisco, G